Title: Tellim Women's Institute fonds
Dates: 1977-1996
Phys. desc.:   74 cm of textual records and other material.

Bio/ Admin History: The Tellim Women's Institute, named for the Alberta community of Millet spelled backwards, was founded in 1977. It was active in numerous activities serving the community and disbanded in 1997.

Custodial History: The material was donated to the Millet and District Historical Society in a donation containing a number of Women's Institute files in the 1990s and from Leila Kerr in 2003

Scope / Content: The fonds consists of scrapbooks containing news clippings, photographs, and memorabilia documenting the activities of the Tellim Women's Institute, including members' autobiographies; an attendance register; and a collection of annual reports and other publications of the Alberta Women's Institute and the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada. Some of the annual reports were originally part of the Millet Women's Institute fonds.
