Veterans' Tour

Attached to this booklet is a map that outlining the most efficient way to tour the veterans plots. The veterans' photos and information are in order according to how the tour was planned out. However, feel free to use the map to create your own unique tour.

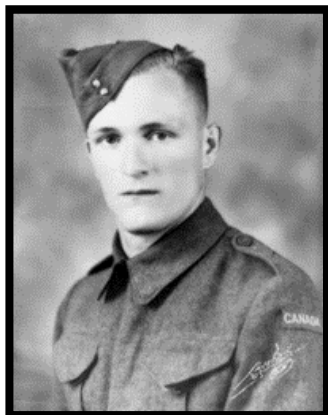

Means that they died in action.

Thanks to these brave, heroic soldiers we are able to live in freedom. Without them, daily life would be very different for us. It is important to honour these men and woman and to recognize the sacrifices that they made. Some even paid the ultimate sacrifice, with their lives.

Millet is proud to have been home to these courageous individuals. Taking the time to learn about them is a way we can pay tribute to the gift they have given us. We will remember them.

Bert Churchill
