Bucher as chairman and M.J. Howes as Secretary-Treasurer. The name Pleasant Hill was suggested by Bucher for the new district, however the name was rejected by the Department of Education and Hillside was chosen to replace it. T.W. Fetherstone gave one acre on the S.E. corner of his property as a site for the new school and he was paid $30 to clear it. Lumber was purchased for $14 per m. and sills for $20 per m. Mr. Fetherstone then constructed the school for $112. In 1939 the Alberta school system was reorganized and the District became part of Wetaskiwin School Division No. 36. Hillside School was closed in 1954.
