Bio-Admin History:	In 1928 a Sons of Norway lodge, Number 352, was established in the Wang District near Millet, Alberta. It was named Normanna and met monthly at the Wang or Crooked Lake Hall and later at the Co-op Hall. The members of the Lodge wished to preserve their traditions language and culture and to meet together for fellowship and mutual assistance. Membership was open to individuals of Norwegian descent and their spouses. Activities tended to the social, including dances, singing, music playing, drama and picnics. The lodge reorganized in December 1984. They decided to retain the original name of Normanna but changed to Lodge No. 595. The group continues their regular meetings, established scholarships, and provided donations to local service organizations. The organization folded in 2010.
Custodial History:	The records were received in three donations to the Millet and District Historical Society from the society in 2001, from Carl Jensen in 2004 and from Ronna Jevne in 2006. Darlene Bradon, President, donated the records of Lodge 595 in 2010.
