Bio/Admin History:	The Porto Bello Community Society was founded on September 1, 1951. The group met for the purpose of retaining the Porto Bello school for community purposes. On April 12, 1954 a curling club was organized as a subsidiary of the Society, and a straw bale and sheeting constructed rink was built. The building was given a more permanent structure by 1960. The curling organization was dissolved in 1967 and the Community Society became the sole governing body, including managing curling activities. In 1973 the school house was upgraded for meeting purposes, including insulation, ceiling tiles, a furnace and new pump house.
Custodial History:	The records were donated by the Porto Bello Community Society after a vote on February 8, 2016.
Scope/Content:	This fonds consists of copies of the school registers of the Porto Bello School, copies of the Porto Bello Community Society Annual Returns, and business administrative records of the Porto Bello Community Society including minutes, financial records, and document regarding the arrangement of the Porto Bello reunions.
